

Buttomed napkin ring

1. If there are no instructions to use a specific stitch, use the straight stitch.
2. Presser foot "J" (straight stitch) and buttonhole foot "A" will be used.

This napkin ring is like a simple buttoned belt. Use fabric in a variety of colors or colorful patterns.

Some models cannot sew characters like those on the napkins.

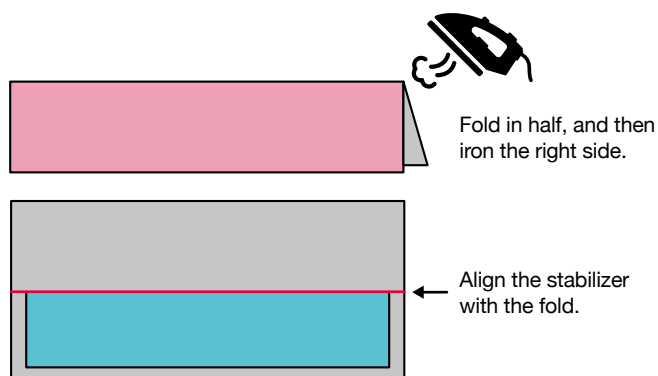

Materials

- Cotton (26 cm wide × 12 cm)
- Stabilizer (24 cm wide × 5 cm)
- Button (2 cm diameter)

Prepare the required quantities for the expected number of people.

- 1 Affix stabilizer to the wrong side of the fabric.

- 2 Fold in half with right sides together, and then stitch along the edges.

- 3 Turn right side out, iron the fold, and then stitch along the edges.

- 4 Sew buttonholes.

For details on free-arm sewing, refer to the manual for your sewing machine.

- 5 Attach the button to complete the project.

This length is for a 45 cm square napkin. Change the position of the button and the length of the belt to fit your napkin.
